

SCOTT LANGRIDGE

Costume Designer

A graduate from Bournemouth and Poole College of Art and Design studying Costume for the screen and stage, which backed up his formal training in fashion design and tailoring, Scott started his career at the BBC, gaining many years of experience. He has spent the past 16 years working on a wide range of projects from sitcoms to primetime drama, and from horror to comedy, as well as commercials and music videos, and is as strong on budget and managing his department as he is in design and interpretation. And with bases in Manchester and London, Scott is available for work worldwide
